ASEAN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS JAMBOREE 2024

20
NOV
2024

The AQSA Research and Education Conference 2024 will be jointly held by AQSA and UNIMAS from 19th to 20th November 2024 in Kuching Sarawak, Malaysia. The congress will be attended by approximately 200 professionals and 500 students.

Participant will be attending the AQSA Research and Education Conference 2024 on 19th November 2024. Apart from that, undergraduates will be invited to present their research in a poster presentation competition. This is an opportunity for the students to interact with industrial practitioners, develop their presentation skills, and learn about the current construction issues in this region.

On 20th November 2024, the students will be participating in the ASEAN University Students Jamboree. This team-building event would enhance their communication and problem-solving skills. Besides, it would provide an opportunity to get together with participants from ASEAN countries.
